Career Coach Advice

“Securing an internship is just the beginning—converting it to a full-time offer requires strategy! For students currently in internships or preparing for summer opportunities, here are my top tips for maximizing your conversion potential:

- 1. Clarify expectations with your supervisor early
- 2. Document your accomplishments throughout the internship
- 3. Seek feedback regularly—don't wait for formal reviews
- 4. Build relationships beyond your immediate team
- 5. Express your interest in returning before the internship ends

Remember, the best time to secure your next opportunity is while you excel in your current one!”
